THE CITY TICKET.

We place at the head of our columns to-day the names of the candidates for city offices which were nominated by the Republican City Convention, this afternoon. The ticket is not only strong in point of influence, but it is strong in point of fitness, and can conscientiously claim the vigorous and united support of the entire party. Believing that our municipal affairs will be best promoted by the election of this ticket, we urge every Republican in the city to put his shoulder to the wheel and aid in the election of all the candidates.

AN OLD PIONEER GONE.

Hon. Andrew B. Jackson, an old Wisconsin pioneer, and a member of the second Constitutional Convention, died at his residence, near Evanston, on Monday evening, the 25th, of congestion of the lungs. The deceased was sixty-four years of age, and was most deeply respected by a large circle of friends in this State. He attended the reunion of the survivors of the Constitutional Convention, held in Madison on the first of February, and took an active and interesting part in the proceedings of the reunion, and is the first of that little band to cross the river of death.

The State Journal gives the following account of Mr. Jackson's career in this State: "Mr. Jackson was a pioneer to the State of Wisconsin, and has occupied considerable prominence. In 1840, he represented Racine county in the Territorial Legislature; and in 1847, he was a member of the Constitutional Convention from the same county. He was always in his place, watchful of the interests of his constituents, and efficient in carrying out their wishes. Soon after the inauguration of President Lincoln, Mr. Jackson was appointed as Register or Receiver, in the Land Office, at Menasha, a position which he held for several years. In early life, Mr. Jackson was an active member of the Democratic party, but on the organization of the Republican party, or soon afterwards, he took position in it, and was a valuable member of that organization. He took a deep interest in promoting the general welfare of the State of Wisconsin and its people. He removed to Evanston in the fall of 1869, where he had resided until about two years since, when he removed to Rogers' Park, where he had large real estate interests. The deceased leaves a wife and four children—three sons and a daughter. Wherever Mr. Jackson had lived he was highly esteemed as an upright, straightforward, Christian gentleman, and has always been prominently identified with church interests.

GOV. SMITH'S APPOINTMENTS.

Governor Smith has made the following appointments, the commissions being issued yesterday:

To Andrew E. Elmore and John Mather, as Managers of the State Industrial School, at Wauskegan. These are re-appointments.
To Herman S. Hogeboom and W. T. Vankirk, of Janesville, as Trustees of the Institute for the Blind, in place of J. B. Whiting, M. D., and William Macleod.
To Edward J. Nelson, of Milwaukee, as Trustee of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, in place of Joseph Hamilton.
To Dustin G. Cheever, of Clinton, as Trustee of the Deaf and Dumb Institute. This is a re-appointment.
To H. N. Davis, as Trustee of the Wisconsin State Hospital for the Insane.
To P. R. Hoy, as Fish Commissioner.

All these appointments are gentlemen well known in their respective localities, and are men well qualified for the position. In regard to the appointments which more directly concern the citizens of Janesville—those pertaining to the Institute for the Blind—they will give general satisfaction among their political friends. They are first class business men and will do the State good service as trustees of that important institution. The terms of Dr. Whiting and Mr. Macleod expire in April.

WISCONSIN REPUBLICANS.

Some soreheaded and disappointed politician, has written a letter from Milwaukee to the Chicago Tribune in which he attacks the leading Republicans of Wisconsin. Any one who has been prominently identified with the work of the Republican party for the last half a dozen years, is called a "machine" man, and all the reverses which the party has met since the election of that perfect nonentity, W. R. Taylor, are chargeable to these men. He sees the party floundering in the bogs, and has already begun to write its obituary. Disappointment and political dyspepsia, create queer imaginations in some men. If they are not first and foremost in the ranks, and are not flattered and patted and well fed at the public crib, they imagine the party is in the hands of "machine" men, and that it has fulfilled its mission. There is no remedy for these political hypochondriacs but office, and a failure to administer the remedy turns them into chronic grumblers like George W. Julian, and several in this State, including the correspondent to the Tribune. Their sands of political life have run out, they have outlived their usefulness, and because they are passing out of existence, they believe the Republican party is expiring with them. But the Tribune correspondent and all of his kind, are bewildered at the result of the election last November. While they stood on the fence cackling mournfully, whining about "machine" men, refusing to give the Republicans any assistance or encouragement, but all the while predicting defeat, the party kept on in the even tenor of its way and badly beat the Democratic ticket. The Republicans of Wisconsin, despite the differences between them, and the Administration, are a unit on all the great questions which have bound the party together in the past, and which have carried it through so many struggles to splendid victories.

THE EAST.

The Great Crisis—An Unprecedented Situation—All Movements Look to a General War.

LONDON, March 28.—No hope of the Congress is now left, and there seems to be no means of estimating what will be the outcome from the present diplomatic muddle. Gen. Ignatieff's visit to Vienna shows the evident intention of Russia to conciliate with Austria, but it is questionable whether Hungary can be induced to recognize the treaty of St. Stefano until important alterations have been made in its provisions. Your Vienna correspondent states that Ignatieff has failed to secure Count Andrassy's consent to the plan proposed by Russia, and that there are rumors there that Andrassy is about to yield to Hungarian influence, and openly oppose Russia. Rumors, however, are numerous, not only in Vienna, but in every other great capital, and it is impossible to obtain any certain information as to what will be the next direction which affairs will take. It is certain that England and Russia have now reached the most critical part of their intercourse, and there is more probability of war than peace. Russia is making every effort to isolate England from the other powers, and if she can obtain the neutrality of Austria and Hungary it is not likely that England can get any other ally. Even Turkey is likely to be more favorable toward Russia than toward England, and the Grand Duke Nicholas is paying frequent visits to the Sultan. As soon as Gen. Ignatieff arrives in Constantinople direct negotiations for a benevolent neutrality, if not an actual alliance, will begin. Of course, this is not the first time that Russia and England have been nearly involved in war, and history affords a peaceful solution of the difficulties may be found. But the present crisis is decidedly worse than any of its predecessors, and it is quite probable that both nations may find war less intolerable than continual uncertainty and alarm.

BACK PAY.

The Senate Resolve to Pay the Louisiana Senatorial Contestants.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The Senate to-day passed a resolution to pay two more Senators-elect from Louisiana who were not admitted to seats. Kollogg resigned the Senatorship January 13, 1873, to take the Governorship of Louisiana. His term would have expired March 4, 1873. John Ray was elected to serve the remaining six weeks of the term by Republicans, and W. L. McMillan by Democrats, there having been at that time two Legislatures in Louisiana. But the Senate seated neither of the contestants. Still to-day, more than five years after, in the days of conciliation, by a vote of 50 to 7, they agreed to pay Ray and McMillan each $1,000 for their expenses incurred in fighting for this six weeks' term.

OUR DELEGATION.

They Visit the President—Congratulations Exchanged—Howe—An Appointment—Vacation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—The Wisconsin delegates, including Senator Cameron, called in a body on the President yesterday morning to assure him that they had not been consulted by Mr. Howe in regard to his speech; that they had not advised it, did not approve it, and regarded it as calculated only to injure the Republican party, and, therefore, ill-advised. The interview was of a very cordial character, but an unexpected explosion occurred when the delegation reached the Capitol on its return. Before leaving the President they called his attention to the fact that ex-Representative Cobb, formerly from Wisconsin, now of Nebraska, was candidate for the position of Register of the Treasury. As they all knew him, and had confidence in him, and could vouch for his ability, they took the liberty of suggesting his appointment. They report the President as entering into the matter with earnestness, and responding fully to all that was said in commendation of his ability and fitness. In fact, the delegation, on leaving, felt themselves justified in believing that Cobb would be appointed. Upon reaching the Capitol, they found that the nomination of Schofield had preceded them, and had actually been communicated to the Senate. They subsequently ascertained that the selection had been made and the place offered to Schofield the day before their visit; and, beginning the day by denouncing Howe's speech to the President, they ended it by denouncing the President himself.

It is reported that Col. George B. Corbhill, of Washington, is engaged in writing a true history of the assassination of President Lincoln. He is making a careful research, and has in his possession many facts never published.

The Iowa Legislature did a good thing this winter—it restored the death penalty, for murder in the first degree.

An Important Trial in Progress in Milwaukee—A $100,000 Fire in Green Bay—An Interesting Decision for Wheat Speculators.

MILWAUKEE, March 27.—The case of the United States against the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Road to recover a tax of $35,000 on the receipts of the elevator of the corporation in this city, is now on trial before Judge Dyer.

GREEN BAY, Wis., March 17.—A fire broke out about 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the drying house of the Oconto Company, and spread to the extensive planing mill of the same company, which was totally destroyed. Loss between eighty and one hundred thousand dollars. Partially insured in Chicago agencies.

MILWAUKEE, March 27.—Judge Mann, of the county court, has just delivered an opinion that of interest to wheat dealers and speculators. A suit was brought on a note given on margins, and payment resisted on the ground that it was gambling. But the court held that the note was good in the hands of a third party, and must be paid. An appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court.

UNSEATED.

Butler's Victory—By His Vote the General Helps Unseat a Republican Representative.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—Mr. Walbridge Field has probably lost his seat as the Republican Representative from the Third District of Massachusetts by one vote. There is still a bare possibility that when the final vote is taken to-morrow, at the last parliamentary stage, Mr. Field may receive the single vote necessary to permit him to retain his seat. That is his last remaining desperate chance. The probabilities are all against him. The Democrats undoubtedly will resort to every expedient to-night to force those within their party who had honor and manliness enough to stand by their convictions, and who voted for Mr. Field to reconsider their action. To call things by plain names, the Democrats who voted for Mr. Field will to-night be told to the most rigorous exclusion that they are traitors to the cause which terminated to-day in this singular result was a particularly exciting one.

THE SILVER DOLLAR.

Arrangements to Coin the New Dollar at all the Mints.

Washington, March 27.—The Director of the Mint states that, in conformity with the instructions received from the Secretary of the Treasury immediately after the passage of the Silver Law, the utmost exertions have since been made to commence the coinage of the silver dollar at all the mints. Some delay in preparing dies for the Western mints have been unavoidable. In the meantime these mints have been directed to proceed with the preparation of the dollar blanks, and to have ready for stamping when the dies arrive. It is expected that the first lot of dies will be forwarded to the Western mints early next month.

FIRE IN COLUMBUS.

Heavy Fire This Morning—Found Dead—Whisky.

COLUMBUS, March 27.—A fire of considerable extent occurred here this morning, at 3 o'clock. The house and barn of J. J. Sutton was burned to the ground; five horses and two cows were burned. Two of the horses Mr. Sutton had purchased yesterday for $1,200. No insurance. It is claimed to have been an incendiary fire by tramps. A man was found dead 3 miles west of the city yesterday, by a brakeman on the C. & St. P. R. R. He was found on his hands and knees in the water. A bottle of whisky was found in his pocket; the contents were the cause of his death.

MORE WALKING.

Weston Challenges O'Leary—For a Six Days Walking Match.

LONDON, March 27.—Edward P. Weston has challenged Daniel O'Leary, the victor in the recent international pedestrian contest. The contest is to be a six days walking match for $2,500.

AN EXPLOSION.

LONDON, Eng., March 27.—An explosion occurred to-day in Opedall colliery, North Staffordshire. Five corpses have already been recovered. Thirty persons are still in the pit, and it is feared all are dead.

MRS. HAYES.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 27.—Mrs. R. B. Hayes left for Cincinnati to-day, via the Scioto Valley and Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad, in General Manager Chapman's private car.

THE ELECTIVE FRANCHISE.

To the Editor: Miss Anthony gave an instructive and entertaining lecture last evening; and it is a pity that more of our citizens did not hear her. The lady's logic is not invincible, however. She really wants the ballot first and thinks that will prove to be the great bread-winner. Her reasoning is somewhat on a parallel with that of Mrs. Hooker before the Senatorial Committee, i. e., elective franchise in the hands of woman will work out to a happy issue the social problem. But is it at all certain that our reformers will get what they want simply by wielding the ballot?

One fact: Why do not the laboring men our large cities, who have the majority vote, accomplish the desired result? Simply because mind is supreme. Intelligence must govern in this country. The fact is, universal suffrage is not the palladium of our liberties, but, rather the impediment of real progress. The supreme question in American politics to-day is: How to have a responsible citizenship, at once educated and moral. Let the capable alone be sovereigns—whether men or women. But who shall erect the standard, and what shall it be? LUKE. Janesville, March 28.

THE LATEST IRRUPTION OF VANDALS.

The Horde that Flocked to Washington Seeking Office from the Democratic House—Fate of Fitzhugh and Folk Explained.

The Sunday Capital, a Democratic paper, is not pleased with the civil service method of the Democracy, and expresses itself in the following strong language: "The distribution of patronage by the Democratic house has been simply shameful. There is not a thoughtful man in the country cognizant of the fact who does not shudder at the thought of such men having control of the civil service of the general Government. When the Democratic Congress first met, the array of applicants suggested the emptying of all the poor houses and penitentiaries of the country. There never had been seen in Washington before such a crowd of disreputable-looking men, and each member of the House had a little company at his back, and every Senator had a brigade. They put up at hotels, passed from that to cheap boarding-houses, and wound up in alleys, station-houses and cellars. From these the officers of the House made their selection. How they succeeded, Fitzhugh and Folk can answer. Of Folk's case it says: 'This unhappy old gentleman fell a victim to the fierce greed of the members who elected him doorkeeper. They crowded in on him people who stole; people who slept in members' chairs and snored so loud they disturbed the proceedings; fellows who were willing to take other men's pay and work for them; and poor devils who were willing to do the work for half the pay. He had more pages and door-bangers pained off on him than his payroll could carry, and each member promised him to make it all right in the coming appropriation. The poor old gentleman labored and perspired prayerfully at times, but mostly with much profanity, and all the while paying money out of his own pocket to cover deficits and continue the harmony.'"

A Suggestion to the Traveling Public.

Tourists, emigrants and mariners find that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicinal safeguard against unhealthy influences, upon which they can implicitly rely, since it prevents the effects that an unhealthy climate, vitiated atmosphere, unaccustomed or unwholesome diet, bad water, or other conditions unfavorable to health would otherwise produce. On long voyages or journeys by land in latitudes adjacent to the equator, it is especially useful as a preventive of the febrile complaints and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, which are liable to attack natives of the temperate zones sojourning or traveling in such regions, and it is an excellent protection against the influences of extreme cold, sudden changes of temperature, exposure to damp or extreme fatigue. It not only prevents indigestion and malarial fever, and other diseases of a malarial type, but eradicates them, a fact which has been notorious for years past in North and South America, Mexico, the West Indies, Australia, and other countries.

The miser died in a dilapidated hotel, without any of the necessities or comforts of life, while it turns out that he was possessed of property valued at $2,792,000 or more. And now the fight of the law years begins. The proceedings in the Probate Court Saturday were of a most extraordinary character. They are probably without a parallel in this part of the country. It makes little difference to the public at large what becomes of the old miser's estate, but it is very important that the character of our courts of justice should be maintained above suspicion. The idea of appointing as administrator an illiterate person, who is a claimant, and that people should rush forward to get his security who do not even know him, is to say the least, very curious. If the lawyers do not get more in the end than the heirs of the miser, the proceedings will not end as they have begun.

BRIEFLETS.

—Breezy.]
 —Last week of a weak March.
 —Last night was a bad one on weak-jointed umbrellas.
 —There has been a change in the time table of the mails in some respects.
 —Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rucker entertained a number of their young friends last evening.
 —It is wise to commence early to remember that next Monday will be April fool's day.
 —Rev. Henry Faville, pastor of the Delavan Methodist church, passed last night in this city with friends.
 —B. Merritt and J. Fredendall have started for Kansas with teams and outfits for pursuing the life of pioneers.
 —The Council of the Temple of Honor conferred degrees on Burr Robbins and his agent George Steele last night.
 —The school dames and the young ideas will soon have a week's rest. The term examinations are now in progress.
 —Miss Nellie Hunt, who has been attending Lawrence University, at Appleton, is at home for a brief vacation.
 —Rev. Edward H. Merrill, President of Ripon College, is in the city to-day looking after the interests of that institution.
 —Sergt. Childers has gone to Fort Atkinson, where he will open up his stock of red ribbons, and tell about the benefits of cold water.
 —Last night was a little too uncomfortable for tramps to be abroad and none strolled inside the city limits as far as heard from.
 —A number of boats carrying sportsmen and their tools passed up the river the other day, toward a camping place near Koshkonong.
 —A death of criminal news may be expected until after the election. The heavy hand of the law is too busy with the button-hole.
 —Mr. George Mitchell, one of Chicago's lawyers, and son of Dr. Mitchell, is visiting and attending to business for a brief season, in this city.
 —There was a lively dance at Concordia hall last night, which ended between one and two o'clock this morning. It was rather of a private affair.
 —The express company will begin moving into their new quarters to-morrow, and will have all the fixtures completely arranged by Saturday night.
 —Officer Robinson arrived from Beloit this afternoon with five tramps, four of whom have been sentenced to work on the streets for sixty days and one for thirty days.
 —Six-inch iron gas mains are strewn along Fourth street east of Bluff, and along Ann street. They will be put in at once, to take the place of the present wooden ones.
 —Miss Susan B. Anthony said last night that she thought women could get their bread by the ballot. No one denies but what some of them do get it by the ballot already.
 —One enterprising youth, who is about the tender age of 30, has some coins to pay at Justice Patten's, for a conviction of drunkenness, and is letting his poor mother hunt about to secure the necessary funds.
 —Sheriff Colley is able to get out doors but is scarcely able to do more than that, his leg still troubling him badly, owing to the strain he received from the scuffle with the tramps, which has proved more serious than it was at first deemed to be.
 —Mr. H. S. Hoggboom and Mr. W. T. Vankirk today received official notification of their appointment as Trustees of the Institution for the Blind, to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of Dr. Whiting and Capt. Maclean.
 —The name of George L. Beetle, formerly the Northwestern ticket agent here, appears among the list of Americans in Paris. It is understood that he is there in the interest of the electric pen, which is coming into such common use.
 —Bishop Wells, of this Episcopalian diocese will visit the churches of this city April 28, it being Low Sunday. There are a number who will be confirmed at that time. He will preach in the morning at one church, and in the evening at the other.
 —John Morrissey, another of the Janesville ball-tossers, has been engaged by the Crickets, of Binghamton, N. Y. His position in the nine will not be settled upon, until they show up in practice. The probability is that he will be placed at third base.
 —Justice Patten has in his possession a piece of silk on which is printed a series of resolutions passed by the Masonic fraternity of this city in 1856, thanking C. Loftus Martin, for a liberal donation to the lodge. It bears its age well and is a happy reminder of earlier times.
 —At noon to-day the fire bells rang out the first alarm which they have sounded for a long time. It was caused by the discovery of too much smoke in the Stevens house. The origin of the smoke proved to be a burning chimney. The engines turned out promptly but their services were not needed, the chimney being easily put in usually good running order.
 —H. C. Sherman, Master of the State Grange, who has been lecturing at different places in this county during the past two weeks, will speak at a public meeting this evening at the Janesville Grange hall. A number from the city expected to go out, but the skies and the roads may cause them to change their minds. He is a good speaker, is thoroughly conversant with all pertaining to the interests of the Grange, and is everywhere listened to attentively.
 —The Odd Fellows of this city are making the necessary arrangements to celebrate the anniversary of the order in the United States, at Whitewater, April 26, the first lodge in this country being established at Baltimore, April 26, 1819, there being five charter members. There will be a large number of other lodges besides those in this city, who will be represented at Whitewater on that date. The necessary committee from lodges here were appointed last evening.

THE COMING VICTORS!

The Republicans Meet in Convention and Put their Candidates Before the Public.

The Balloting Proceeded With Quickness and Quietly, yet With Becoming Enthusiasm.

A Brief Discussion of the "Cow Ordinance" Question, but No Action Taken.

The Republican Convention for the purpose of nominating candidates to fill the city offices met this afternoon at the council chamber. It was called to order at two o'clock by Mr. H. S. Woodruff. Hon. H. Richardson was chosen Chairman by acclamation and Mr. A. H. Baxter, Secretary.

The Chairman, in accordance with a motion passed by the Convention, appointed Wm. Rucker, J. C. Metcalf, S. L. James, G. A. Libbey and J. W. Bates as a Committee on Credentials.

They reported the names of twenty-four delegates, as already published in the Gazette, which report was adopted.

On motion the Convention proceeded to an

INFORMAL BALLOT

for Mayor. The Chair appointed J. B. Carle, N. O. Clark, and M. M. Conant as tellers. The ballot stood:

Pliny Norcross.....16
 A. P. Levejoy.....13
 Henry Palmer.....2
 Hiram Merrill.....1
 J. Sutherland.....1

The Convention without any speech-making or formal presentation of names, proceeded to the following formal ballot

FOR MAYOR:

Whole number of votes.....34
 Necessary to choose.....17

Pliny Norcross.....19
 A. P. Levejoy.....13
 Henry Palmer.....2
 Hiram Merrill.....1

Hon. Pliny Norcross was thereupon declared the nominee of the Convention for the office of Mayor.

The Convention then proceeded to a

FORMAL BALLOT FOR CITY CLERK.

E. L. Dimock.....16
 G. H. Davey.....13
 John Berrie.....2

Mr. E. L. Dimock was thereupon declared the nominee for City Clerk.

THE CITY TREASURERSHIP.

Mr. H. S. Woodruff moved that no nomination be made for City Treasurer.

Mr. J. B. Carle seconded it, and the question was thrown open for discussion. The question was asked whether any Republican desired the nomination. No one seemed anxious enough to speak out in the affirmative, but the motion was voted down on the suggestion that Mr. J. M. Hazleton, the present Treasurer, be placed upon the ticket, on the ground that he was an able official though he was of another political stripe. A motion was made to nominate him by acclamation. The vote was unanimous, and Mr. J. M. Hazleton was thereupon declared the Convention's nominee for City Treasurer.

FOR POLICE JUSTICE.

The nomination for Police Justice was next in order. Mr. J. C. Metcalf placed before the Convention the name of Sanford A. Hudson, and urged the advisability of placing him upon the ticket. Mr. Wm. Rucker urged the interests of the present incumbent, Justice Patten. He said he had nothing to say against Mr. Hudson for he was a warm friend and admirer of that gentleman. Still he deemed it an inviolable distinction to make, to fail to nominate Justice Patten, in accordance with the precedent established in the early proceedings of the convention.

THE FIRST BALLOT

was an informal one and resulted:

J. F. Patten.....17
 S. A. Hudson.....7

The formal ballot resulted:

J. F. Patten.....15
 S. A. Hudson.....9

L. F. Patten was therefore declared the nominee for Police Justice.

At the suggestion of Mr. Wm. Rucker, the chair appointed a committee of one to notify Mayor Norcross of his nomination.

Mr. Rucker was named.

The following formal ballot was then taken for

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

M. M. Phelps.....21
 S. A. Hudson.....2

Mr. M. M. Phelps was formally declared the nominee for Justice of the Peace.

The nomination for

CITY ATTORNEY

was next in order. The first ballot, a formal one, resulted:

E. F. Carpenter.....19
 J. W. Bates.....1

J. E. Bennett.....1

E. F. Carpenter was thereupon declared the nominee for City Attorney.

For the office of

SEALER OF WEIGHTS AND MEASURES

Herman Knoff and John Spang were named. The first ballot was formal and resulted:

H. Knoff.....18
 J. Spang.....7

Mr. H. Knoff was declared the nominee for that office.

Mayor Norcross, the nominee for another term, was then presented to the Convention by the committee appointed to notify him of the action taken. He accepted the nomination in a brief and characteristic speech which was received with due applause.

On motion of J. W. Bates

A CITY COMMITTEE

was appointed of one from each ward, and one at large. The chair named:

First Ward—J. C. Metcalf.
 Second Ward—J. W. Bates.
 Third Ward—B. B. Eldredge.
 Fourth Ward—J. A. Webb.
 Fifth Ward—John Berrie.
 At Large—H. S. Woodruff.

Mr. Wm. Rucker suggested that it might be desirable to get at this election an expression of the people on the cow ordinance. Such an expression, he said, would not prove legally binding, but it might serve to guide the Mayor, and the Council in its action.

Mr. J. C. Metcalf was of a similar mind but did not want it mixed up with the election proper. If separate ballots were prepared on that question alone, to be counted the next day, it would answer the purpose.

Mr. H. S. Woodruff deemed it better to call a special election at some future time to settle the question.

Adjournment was taken without any action on the suggestion.

TOO BIG A CITY.

—One of Beloit's young ladies came to the city yesterday according to her wont to take her music lesson. She became so mixed up about the streets that she wandered nearly to Monterey in search of the store, over which the music room was located. She finally found the place, by the aid of a gentleman who pointed out the way. She explains her wanderings by saying that the residence streets in Janesville looked about as busy as the main streets of Beloit, and she therefore thought she was nearing the business center of the city. It don't do for village visitors to lose their bearings when they reach this city.

SCOTCH SONGS.

To-morrow evening there will be an interesting and unique entertainment at the Opera house, given by Mr. S. H. Rhys, assisted by J. C. Alden, Jr., the former being a singer and the latter a pianist, and both said to be artists of more than ordinary merit. The entertainment embraces the most popular songs of "Auld Scotia," each being preceded by a brief biographical sketch of the author, which adds fresh interest to each song. As a means of culture this entertainment promises to be profitable, and no less pleasing as an amusement. These gentlemen have taken pains to execute the music as originally written, and cut out all the innovations made by those desirous of making the songs more modern. They present the ballads without any adulteration, and being interspersed with apocryphal and interesting biographical and historical facts, the evening will doubtless be filled with profit and pleasure.

THE BALLOT FOR WOMEN.

Miss Susan B. Anthony had but few auditors last evening, which was owing largely to the blustering, rainy state of the weather. She talked for an hour and a half though, earnestly urging the placing of the ballot in the hands of the women, as a means of bettering the condition of the female classes of society. She did not deliver any carefully prepared lecture, as many expected she would do, and there was in consequence some disappointment felt. Her talk was somewhat informal and no attempt was made to develop any great rhetorical or oratorical climaxes. She hurried from one point to another in the presentation of her pet cause, stating them in plain language, but yet with energy and enthusiasm. She evidently has her heart in her work. Those who did not endorse all that she said listened to her attentively, and had the night been more favorable the audience would doubtless have been much larger.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 32 degrees above zero and at 2 o'clock at 39 degrees above. A heavy rain storm with wind, last night, and strong wind during the forenoon. One year ago to-day at corresponding hours the thermometer stood at 30 and 36 degrees above.

The indications to-day are, clear or partly cloudy weather, preceded at the south and east stations by rain areas, colder, northerly winds, and rising barometer.

Light snow is reported at Cheyenne, and light rain at Keokuk, Davenport, Milwaukee, Grand Haven and Toledo, and a heavy rain at Cleveland.

NIGHT SCHOOL IN ASTRONOMY.

The first in the course of five lectures on Astronomy will be given to-night in the parlors of All Souls church. The topics will be, The Phenomena of the Heavens and Ancient Ideas of Astronomy, including the Origin of Constellation and of our division of times. Admission 10 cents; school children 5 cents.

FOOTVILLE.

The funeral services of Mr. Ogden were held at this place on Monday last. Mr. Ogden died after a short illness of seven days, and leaves behind a large circle of mourning friends and relatives. Three other members of the family are still confined to beds of sickness.

An accident occurred here last Monday night that will be apt to act as a check upon the recklessness displayed by the boys, in jumping upon passing trains. When the evening freight arrived a number of boys climbed upon it as usual, and while a son of Mr. Kinn, a boy about 16 years of age, was attempting to pass from one car to another he slipped and fell between two wheels passed over one of his legs when he drew himself from beneath the train. Drs. Evans and Anderson amputated the limb just below the knee and reported the boy doing well.

The exhibition given by the school of this place some two weeks ago, gave such satisfaction that many were anxious to have it repeated; and consequently they tried it again last Friday evening, and met with fair success. With the exception of one or two pieces it was very good indeed. The net receipts were about $35, which was not very bad, considering the fact that admission fee of only ten cents was charged.

—J. W. West, who will remove to Evansville ere long, received quite a surprise party last Tuesday evening. A number of the young people appreciating his efforts in behalf of the Sunday school in this place, purchased him a very fine book which was presented to him on that evening. A very pleasant evening was spent, as all seemed to enjoy themselves to the best of their abilities.

—Rev. Mr. Wardner, of Milton, who delivered a lecture here last Monday evening, met with a small audience and little encouragement to come again. There did not seem to be as much interest manifested as might be expected.

—Prof. Sprague, of Evansville, gave a public reading in the M. E. church, on Thursday evening last. He had a large audience and all seemed to be well pleased with his rendition of the pieces selected.

FULTON.

—Not long since Rev. Mr. May concluded to purchase his wood standing, which he did, and proceeded to grub it himself. As soon as it became known that he was not afraid of labor, a number of young men proceeded to the field, where they found Mr. May. They soon did the grubbing, for which they received the thanks of Mr. May.

—Mr. Spencer Ide, of the firm of Smith & Ide, of Evansville, made a short visit home last Sunday. He reports business good and predicts great improvement in that pleasant village.

—Fulton items send to box 32.
 —R. W. Ruanell and son, packed 13,600 pounds of tobacco last week, the product of six and one-half acres, and is of the Valandingham and Pennsylvania varieties. Who beats this?

—In a few days the tramps will be able to sleep out doors, but now they are pulled out of barns and made to journey on.

—There are two firms at Edgerton selling tobacco cases, one of which has sold 3,000 cases already.

—Nearly all of the farmers have sown some wheat.

—There will be a grand pigeon shoot of 1,200 wild pigeons at Edgerton, on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

—Many papers say that tobacco is paying so well that farmers will set more acres than usual, when the fact is there is no market at present at any paying price. If farmers put out the usual number of acres it will be because there seems to be a profit in anything and the farm must be cultivated.

—Mrs. Vaughn and sons have gone to Iowa to raise wheat.

—The person who slept in an out-bin in Porter, can have a photograph, which he left, and some good advice by calling at the same place again, (in the day time).

—Not long since a little girl two years old informed her mother "That a man was going by with a tramp on his back, being a man with a bundle."

Great Favor.

Among ladies and gentlemen of refinement, Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes are in great favor. Having sweetness and durability, they are universal favorites among all lovers of perfumes. Try Dr. Price's Alisth Bouquet—for a handkerchief perfume it is delightful.

CITY NOTICES.

Van B. Ruth, for many years connected with The Howe Machine Co., as a special agent, is in town, and desires to effect an arrangement with a first-class party, to handle their New Improved Machine in this vicinity. Mr. Ruth assures us that he is able to offer extraordinary inducements to an acceptable party, and that a profitable business can be done here. Their New Machine is the wonder of the day, and this is a favorable opportunity for the right man. For particulars call on Mr. Ruth, at the Davis house or Moseley Bros., book store.

A Remarkable Remedy.
 It makes no difference how many physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, etc., who have no personal knowledge of Boecher's German Syrup. To all such we would say that 50,000 doses were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regulate size 75 cents. Sold by all druggists in America.

Our Grateful Climate
 Makes a reliable remedy for Throat and Lung Disorders necessary in every household. Farber's Great Tonic is the medicine needed. It radically cures Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, and even Consumption, if used in time, by its powerful specific action on the Stomach, Kidneys, Skin, Liver, and mucous surfaces of the Throat and Lungs. In this natural way it cleanses the waste matters from the blood, builds up the tissues, fortifies the system against further attacks, and permanently allays inflammation of the Throat, Lungs, and other organs.

At cures Dyspepsia, and its varied symptoms of Headache, Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Wakefulness, Acid Stomach, Constipation, Liver Complaints, Costed Tongue, Low Spirits, Rheumatic Pains, etc., and gives comfort after a hearty meal. Buy a $1.00 bottle from your druggist, A. J. Roberts, Janesville, Wis., or a sample bottle at 15 cts., and test its extraordinary merits.

Chicago Market.
 Chicago, March 27.
 There was a fair amount of trading in the markets during the afternoon, operators being in good attendance.
 Wheat—The market on spring wheat—This market was stronger to-day. The European news being more warlike than on the former days of the week, the bears were compelled to relinquish their control of the trade, and from the opening transactions up to the adjournment the tendency of the movement was upward. Prices, in a word, were favorable for sellers, and as compared with the closing quotations of yesterday evening, an advance of 1 1/2¢ was established. Business was active; in speculative circles more than the usual interest was developed and on all sides a rather nervous feeling was manifested. Liverpool and New York advices generally reported either firm or steady markets. Cash No 2 closed at 1 1/2¢ for gilt edge, and 1 1/4¢ for regular receipts.
 The latest report on No 3 spring wheat was in fair demand at weaker prices, seller may sell at 1 1/2¢ @ 1 1/4¢, and closing with buyers at 1 1/4¢; seller April lower than May.
